

Online Resources

The internet has a vast amount of information available with a simple search, some of it good and some of it bad. The Internet has some of the best tools, information and resources on the Christian faith to aid you in your own study. Here are just a few of some great resources available at your figure tips.

Bible Programs:

- The Online Bible Software

- This is professional quality software program that provides extensive Bible Study tools, including free commentaries, free Bible version, free lexicons and Bible dictionaries, and free theology books and resources. Modern versions like the NIV, NAS and NKJV can be licensed for a nominal charge. Well worth downloading and installing. (this software is used for projecting the Bible verses on Sunday mornings)

- eSword Bible Study Software - This is another professional quality software program that provides extensive Bible Study tools, including free commentaries, free Bible version, and free theology books and resources. Modern versions like the NIV, NAS and NKJV can be licensed for a nominal charge. Well worth downloading and installing.

- Blue Letter Bible - This is an online resource only, pack full of Bible version, commentaries, dictionaries, devotionals, and every bit of it free.

Christian History Resources:

- The Christian Classics Ethereal Library - is a digital library of hundreds of classic Christian books selected for edification and education.

- The Hall of Church History - this is Phillip Johnson's collection of Church history documents.

Christian Persecution sites:

Cult and Unorthodox Beliefs Resources:

WARNING: These sites are not meant to promote their theology or beliefs. They are presented here for those who may be interested in witnessing to people in these cults and/or cultic beliefs.

A little fun and humor

-
Lark News - A humorous look at Christian news and events. It started out a local church newsletter but quickly grew, and in 2003 it moved to the Internet. A chance for us all to laugh at ourselves.

Do you have some good resources that you know about or use? Send us your links!