

NC3 Worship Leader Job Description

Position Overview:

North County Community Church is seeking a Worship Leader that is a spiritual and organizational leader who is passionate about worship and music ministry for our church.

We are looking for a person who reflects the heart of a pastor by showing love for others and a desire to help them love God. This person requires the skills of a musician who can lead our church in singing praise to God and encourage growth in their relationship with Him

Leadership of the worship ministry includes, but is not limited to, executing the church vision through the worship element of our Sunday morning service and recruiting and leading our worship volunteers.

Who Are We?

North County Community Church is a non-denominational church located in Hazelwood, Mo. We are led by two co-pastors and a youth pastor. We currently have 200+ people gather on a typical Sunday morning service. Our aim is to create a casual, friendly, grace-based atmosphere that fosters friendship between each other and love towards Jesus. We have a non-traditional church culture that is inviting to people of all types of religious backgrounds and those who are far from God. We seek to be contemporary with our music selection and have used a worship band approach (not choir) for the 37 years we've existed. Our current band serves on a rotational system and includes an acoustic guitar, keyboards, electronic drums, and 4-5 vocalists. Many of the original founders of the church are still with us as we seek to include a more youthful element in our worship services. To learn more about us, visit www.Northccc.com.

Responsibilities: (May be adjusted somewhat according to ministry calling, experience, training, and spiritual gifts.)

Our worship leader would ...

- Lead the musical and technical side of worship and the teams associated with them.

- Schedule, prepare and execute worship practices. This includes communicating times, songs, and other necessary elements to the singers, musicians, and tech crew (projection, lights, and sound).
- Assists with technical needs for funerals, weddings, and other special events as requested.
- Oversee the administrative aspects of the worship ministry. This includes the music budget, record CCLI usage, and maintain copyright requirements.

Abilities:

Our worship leader should be ...

- Able to sing and play a guitar proficiently. (Playing multiple instruments will be an added bonus.)
- Able to communicate clearly in multiple settings (Sunday morning services, small groups, large groups, etc.) Areas of communication include the Gospel, spiritual truths, general announcements, and instructions for worship.
- Possess and demonstrate a developed musical skill set that appreciates and utilizes a contemporary worship style, which reaches multiple generations of attendees.
- Able to transpose and read music.
- Have an understanding of lighting technique for stage and video
- Some familiarity with and a willingness to learn the use of:
 - Organizing the worship team with Planning Center Online.
 - Mixing live audio with digital and analog mixers.
 - Recording, mixing and playback of audio with DAW (Digital audio Workstation).
 - Programming of simple lighting cues and playbacks using a computer based DMX controller.
 - Assembly or media rich presentations using church presentation software (ProPresenter).

Expectation:

Our worship leader is expected to ...

- Be passionate about loving Jesus and helping others to worship him.

- Understand and support the culture, vision, and mission of the church and to match the worship atmosphere the church moves forward to reach people with Jesus love.
- Lead with flexibility and demonstrate a collaborative, energetic nature with the volunteers of the music ministry and the other staff members.
- Set annual goals for the worship ministry that are in line with the vision and mission of the church.
- Be willing to learn new skills and approaches to better serve the staff, the members of the worship team, and the church as a whole.

Qualifications

Our worship leader must ...

- Have a clear testimony of faith in Jesus Christ and a growing relationship with God.
- Be able to clearly communicate the Gospel.
- Be humble, teachable, passionate, motivated by a mission to building a worship culture in our church.
